

Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde

Chapter 7 – Incident at the Window

1. This chapter is very short. Why do you think it is there?

Chapter 8 – The Last Night

1. Utterson receives a visitor – who? What mood is he in? (p 15)

2. They go to Jekyll's place – what is going on? (p 16)

3. What seems to be the problem for who-ever-it-is who has locked himself in the cabinet?
(p 17)

4. What does Poole think has happened? And Utterson? (p 17-18)

5. When Utterson and Poole finally break the door, what do they find? (p 19)

6. They find also the broken key to the backdoor – what does that signify? (p 19)

7. What is the content of the new will? (p 20)

8. "Utterson was amazed to find a copy of a pious work, for which Jekyll had several times expressed a great esteem, annotated, in his own hand with startling blasphemies."
