

Marcus Garvey

- text E2

- have a look in the handout from Context under "NON-FICTION: How to read a text"; what can we use of the questions there?

Maybe we should start with: What is the topic of the text?

Relevant questions must be: Who is speaking and What is the speaker's intention?

- and closely connected with this is the question How reliable is the text (i.e. the author and the information presented).

(what is the purpose of the text? on whose side is the author?)

You must also look at the details, of course: The text presents us with a description of Marcus Garvey and his work and ideas – and his problems.

Give an account of his work and his views, and comment on the quotations in the text.

Anything else that is interesting?
